

I hope that you do not decide to cancel the no call list. It is a wonderful thing. I don't like be bothered by credit card companys, people trying to sell me windows, siding, or anything under the sun. If you do away with this feature it will make many people anger and I for one would be disappointed. Please rethink what you are doing!